

air1 has been a great beneficial radio station to my family and our community. They provide family listening without all the "junk" you hear on other stations and they bring better music for our young people and families to listen to. If air1 was replaced it would greatly effect the youth in our community in a bad way. It provides them with music that they enjoy that can also show them that there is something better for their life.